

Special attachments and modifications are a common request for conveyor pulley assemblies. Drilling and tapping for stub shafts, special key ways, speed indicator targets, are good examples. Contact VAN GORP for your special design needs.

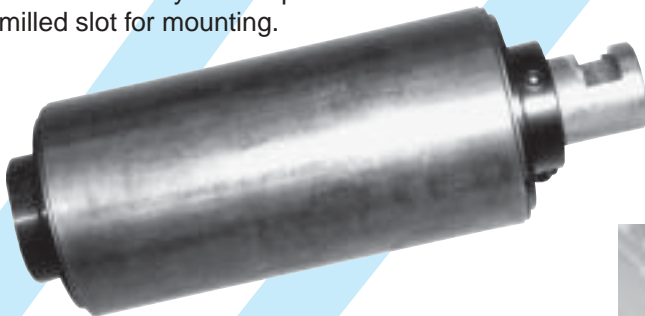

Shaft drilled and tapped with a stub shaft for a speed sensor.

Drive pulley with a sprocket bolted to the end disc.

Roller assembly with a special milled slot for mounting.

Drum pulley with speed indicator targets welded to the end discs.

